CYGNETT

IT'S YOUR WORLD. PROTECT IT.

CYGNETT

It's Your World.

Cygnett designs, develops and manufactures innovative digital accessories for the world's most popular gadgets and technology. From cases and accessories for iPod, iPhone, iPad, smartphones and tablets to portable speakers, earphones, power products and laptop bags, Cygnett has grown to become one of the world's major digital accessories designers and manufacturers.

Our digital accessories and products protect and connect your digital world, letting you explore it with more peace of mind, shape it with more variety and choice, and share your moments, both big and small. Cygnett packaging is recyclable and partially biodegradable, because we believe the digital world should care for the physical one.

We love what we do. It shows in the quality materials we choose, the extensive range we offer and the effort we put into making products that you look forward to using every day. Modern, fresh and dedicated to inventive design, Cygnett goes the extra mile to make your digital experience enjoyable.

With offices on four continents, products in over 40,000 worldwide retail outlets and in more than 36 countries, Cygnett's success is built largely on its ability to design and deliver quality digital accessories and products that tap into what you want – protection, fashion and function.

IT'S YOUR WORLD.
